St. Vincent de Paul Georgia Breaks Ground for Renovation Project

WHAT: On December 4th, St. Vincent de Paul Georgia will be kicking off the transformative renovation of its newly purchased Atlanta headquarters and service center in Chamblee. Share in the celebration, enjoy coffee and breakfast and be a part of history. The event includes breakfast, remarks and sledgehammer swingin’.

WHO: St. Vincent de Paul Georgia leaders and Hope Transformed Capital Campaign supporters.

WHEN: December 4, 2019
8:30am-10:00am
Breakfast and coffee will be available at 8:00am and the program will begin at 8:30am.

WHERE: SVdP Georgia Conference Support Center
2050 Chamblee Tucker Rd. Atlanta, GA 30341

WHY: St. Vincent de Paul Georgia kick-started its Hope Transformed campaign in October 2018 to purchase and transform its main service center. This campaign allows St. Vincent de Paul to double the size of its local food pantry, create a safety-net pharmacy, upgrade the facility’s worn appearance, and revamp the interior with a new teaching kitchen to provide healthy cooking lessons, and educational training resources for clients. This campaign will dramatically change the way St. Vincent de Paul supports 72 conferences and more than 5,000 volunteers throughout the state.

ABOUT ST. VINCENT DE PAUL GEORGIA
