Johns Creek Partners with St. Vincent de Paul for JC Cares Vulnerable Populations Grants

JOHNS CREEK, Ga. – The City of Johns Creek and St. Vincent de Paul Georgia have partnered for the JC CARES Vulnerable Populations Grant Program to help Johns Creek residents with overdue rent and mortgage payments, utility assistance, food assistance, or other unforeseen financial/emergency needs directly related to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Individuals living within the boundaries of Johns Creek can apply directly through St. Vincent de Paul with a maximum individual award of up to $3,000. The application can be found at <https://www.svdpgeorgia.org/johns-creek-help/>. Saint Vincent de Paul will also take assistance requests through the Society's assistance line (678) 892-6163.

Grants will be awarded until the CARES Act funds are depleted. Residents should confirm they live within the eligible Johns Creek city limits by visiting <https://www.johnscreekga.gov/residents/maps/confirm-address>.

As part of its commitment to support those vulnerable populations of Johns Creek impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic, the City Council earmarked $300,000 for established not-for-profit organizations that serve Johns Creek residents.
